

Please keep current regulations on media ownership in place.
If any changes are made, they should be to further limit how much of the media any one entity can control -- not to allow further consolidation. We need more diversity and independent voices--not less.